

OT THEM!

ant Tan Shoes

A to E, new elegant razor
the handsomest ladies' tan
equal to any $5.00 shoe

and Wear!

Everything guaranteed at the

OXFORDS!

White, Ladies' Misses, and latest novelties in summer

elegant style Oxfords, all for 98c.

and Popular Prices.

SHOE STORE,

at Office, Lima, Ohio.

around Spencerville, twenty or more,
and all of them together wouldn't produce ten barrels per day.—Spencerville Journal.

OIL NOTES.

The Oil City market closed at $1.45
for Pennsylvania oil to-day.
The Standard Oil Co. is putting up a tool house on the A. C. Ewing farm.—Bluffton News.

The Gray Eagle Oil company's new well on the Reichelderfer farm, near Cridersville, is pumping between twenty-five and thirty barrels per day.

The well on the James Moore farm
this side of Kosuth, will likely drill
in by Saturday. A little bad luck with their casing has delayed the work.—Spencerville Journal.

Cochran, Sutton & Co.'s well, on the town farm, four miles east of Tost, will not drill before Monday.
A leaky casing and a big flow of water has been giving the workmen lots of trouble.—Spencerville Journal.

Johnson's Swim.

Some little changes in prices of admission. General admission, 25c—5
tickets for $1; transferable, 30 swim
tickets $3; 50 swim, $5; 100 swim, $7.
95-06

SHIRT WAISTS. Six hundred seems waists, but we would buy more if
they could be had. 99-36

RT
WAISTS.

sense variety has been muover of new and origi-
rings, just received.
CT garment or a gar-
PRICE that is wanted,
that are made up and T.

ckles,

B

argest Variety

& CO,

214 North Main Street.

The Lima Times-Democrat.

VOL. XI, NO. 201.

LIMA, OHIO, SATURDAY, JUNE 8, 1895.

PRICE THREE CENTS

AUDE SAPERE

The Motto of the Graduating Class of Ninety-Five

Faurot's Opera House packed at the Commencement Exercises Last Evening

Faurot's opera house never contained a larger and more brilliant audience than that which assembled in that pretty theatre last evening for the purpose of witnessing the thirty-first annual commencement of Lima High school. The stage setting had been arranged very tastefully, and long before a clock arrived, standing room in the theatre was nearly all taken.

The class was one of the largest that ever graduated from the High schools, and was seated in semi-circle across the stage, the young ladies being dressed in pure white, each carrying a bunch of roses. In the rear of the class were seated Superintendent Greenleaf, Prof. Steffens and High School teachers, the Board of Education, Instructor of Music Miles, Dr. Stevenson, of Delaware, the speaker who was to address the class,
and C. B. Crawford.
The exercises opened with a selection from the orchestra, after which Rev. Crawford invoked Divine blessing. The High School then rendered the chorus, "Heaven and Earth," which was excellently rendered, and which was followed by another orchestra
selection after which Superintendent Greenleaf introduced Dr. Stevenson who delivered the class address. He was followed with the rendition of the chorus from "Lohengrin"—"Fathful and True," by the young ladies.
The class after which President of the Board of Education Jones addressed the class in a nice speech and presented the diplomas.

The class then sang the class ode composed by Miss Manning, one of the members. The benediction followed and the exercises closed with the stepping of the class, into the battle of life, were over.
The class was composed of the following:
Susan Bertha Humston, Iva Bowers, Esther Swan, Ada Vogel, Sadie
Dickerson, Grace L. Angell, Emily
Katherine Grose, Emma E. Reilly, Hale Hutchinson, Lorena Gottfried, Carrie Morrison Jones, George Wine-
miller, Charlotte Leane Hughes, Rolla McKinney, Medora Freeman,
Rosebel Key, Robb Melly, Sadie
Manning Margaret Holdridge, Ad-
berta Grace Jones, Homer D. Heman, Bertha Grace Jones, Alice May Hughes,
Lee Faurot, Mesta Prudence Heffer,
Amy W. Fisk, Winona Reichelderfer,
Cora Belle Gientzer and Cora Elma McPherson.

POLICE COURT.

Two Women Arrested for Drunkenness—Wilson and Dobbins Fined.

Grant Dobbins and Ote Wilson, who were engaged in the fight in a hack Tuesday night appeared before the mayor and pleaded guilty to charges of fighting. They were fined $15 and costs each.

Georgia Ray and the other woman,
who were in the hack, have been notified to appear upon charges of disorderly conduct.

Mrs. Sarah Ward and another woman, Mrs. Grace Feenan, were arrested on South Union street by patrolemen Watts and Marks last night for drunkenness. The Feenan woman was released on bail, and she pleaded not guilty to the charge when she appeared this morning, but her trial
has not been set. Mrs. Ward remained in the city prison all night
and pleaded guilty to the charge against her this morning. The mayor has not yet sentenced her.

Geo. Cook, colored, pleaded guilty to a charge of disorderly conduct and was fined $1 and costs, which he promised to pay.

PNEUMATICS.

Frank Plalce will make his ride
against time on the road race course next Wednesday evening. The pace makers will meet at Harman's promptly at 6 o'clock in the evening.

Kayser, the Wapakoneta cycle
dealer, is contemplating a race meet.

There will be bicycle races at Spencerville July 4th.

The movement to organize a United Cyclers Association here for the purpose of making a cycling track in Faurot's driving park and having local races, is progressing nicely, having already about one hundred members.

By the way, what has become of the Bloomer Club?

Capt. Jim Barhydt has announced a run to be made to Indiana Lake tomorrow. The distance is thirty miles and the slow riders will leave the east side of the public square at 6 o'clock in the morning, and will make the run in four hours. The faster men will leave at 7 o'clock at a ten mile per hour rate of speed, and the orchers will leave the Lima House corner at 8 o'clock and will try and make the distance in two hours.
The roads are excellent and the lake is a pleasant place to visit. Everybody is invited.

Charley De Voe took a moonlight ride to Cairo and Beaver Dam Friday night and got two or three bad falls.

Harry Craig, of Lotus, who finished eighth in the road race Decoration
day, has accepted a position at Har-man's, succeeding W. E. Rudy.

O. R. Spurrier has a new mount,
and has begun training.

Moonlight riding has been quite the rage the past week. The roads have been excellent.

Charley Durbrough, "Sarah," is walking now. He tried to run over a big dog on Elm street, a few nights ago, and he did. His wheel has been returned to the factory to have several slats replaced.

Elmer Marshall's new racing wheel was considerably damaged in the road race, which accounts for Elmer finishing when he did.

"Billy" Sullivan has almost decided to quit riding. He has had his face covered with court plaster, and thinks that's enough.

SENATOR BRICE IN TOWN.

He Was Accompanied by Several Prominent L. E. & W. Officials.

Senator Brice, accompanied by General Manager Bradbury and Traffic Manager Parker, of the L. E.
& W., Receiver Drake, of the Mackinac, and several other well known railroad men, arrived in Lima on a special over the L. E. & W. last night, from the east. Senator Brice after attending the Ohio Business Men's Convention at Cleveland, went to Akron yesterday, where he concluded the purchase of the P. A. &
W. Fisher A. Baker, of New York City, bid the road in last October at Master Commissioner's sale, intending to organize a company to operate
it, but the scheme failed. Senator Brice assumed Mr. Baker's bid of $844,000, and the sale was at once confirmed. The road will be used as an Eastern outlet to the L. E. & W.
Senator Brice left on the 2:20 o'clock train for Cincinnati and will be back to spend Sunday here.

STREET TALK.

A committee representing the Catholics living in south Lima are soliciting subscription toward the erection of a Catholic church in that part of the city. The site has not as yet been selected. There was some talk of building a church in that part of the city several years ago but no active measures have been taken until the present time.

Hon. Judson Harmon, the Cincinnati attorney who represented the United States Express Company in the Colvin case, tried at the last term
of court, was last evening selected attorney general by President Cleveland.

The executive committee of the U.
V. U. encampment to be held here
August, met last evening and received the reports of the sub-committees. Chairman L. F. Ellis says everything is progressing nicely.

The C. H. & D. is renewing its efforts to secure control of the Ohio
Southern, which is in the hands of Receiver Saul. Hon. C. W. Fairbanks, of Indianapolis, general counsel of the C. H. & D. is trying to make the deal, but knowing ones do not think he will succeed.

Judge W. T. Mooney, of St. Marys, was in the city this morning, and a TIMES-DEMOCRAT representative stated he would probably be ready to deliver his decision next week in the motion for a new trial in the United States Express company-Colvin case.
A rush of work immediately following the argument of the motion has prevented him from reaching a conclusion sooner.

IMPORTED CHINA.

Hoover Bros., as Usual, to the Front
in the Monster Undertaking.

On the 25th of May there arrived in the port of New York on the fine steamer, "City of Paris" from Southampton, six large casks of White Haviland china, imported direct by Hoover Bros., from Limoges, France, which they are unpacking to day.
Parties desiring anything in this line
will please call early and get the first selection. By this direct importation our patrons receive the benefit of profits which usually go to outside importers.

I. O. O. F. Notice.

All members of Solar Lodge I O
O. F. No. 783 are requested to meet in the lodge room at 2 p. m. sharp Sunday for the purpose of attending the memorial services. All transient Odd Fellows in the city are cordially invited to attend with us.

J. W. VAN EMMON, N. G.

DAVID BELL

Retires From the Dry Goods Trade in Lima, After Ten Years of Active Participation in it.

This morning the dry goods store
of David Bell, which has been closed for a week while the stock was being invoiced, was again thrown open, but no longer under the name of D. Bell, he having sold his large establishment to Messrs. Carroll and Connelly of Newark, Ohio, who are now in control of the store.

It is with regret that the people of Lima see Mr. Bell retire from active participation in the retail business of Lima. He came to Lima a little over ten years ago, and since that time has intimately identified himself with the business interests of Lima. He is a progressive, enterprising business man and has built up a business
which would be creditable to a
city many times the size of Lima.

Mr. Bell, through the Times-Democrat, has intimatedly identified himself with
the business interests of Lima. He
is a progressive, enterprising business man and has built up a business
which would be creditable to a
city many times the size of Lima.

His successors were Carroll & Connelly, experienced dry goods men from Newark, O., where they also have a large store. The people of Lima will find them courteous, pleasant men to transact business with.

SABBATH SERVICES.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH,
corner of West Market and West streets. The pastor, R. J.
Thomson, will preach Subject at 10
a. m. "The Obscure Years of Life."
At 6:30 p. m. Children's Day exercises, a concert exercise by the school,
and an object talk by the pastor.
Sabbath school at 11:30. The Christian Endeavor meeting will be omitted for this Sabbath. The public cordially welcomed at all services.

T. B. CHURCH

Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Y. P.
C. U. Tuesday evening Regular prayer meeting. Thursday evening
Ladies Aid society Friday at 2:30 p. m. All are welcome.

ISAIAH IMLER, PASTOR.

CHRIST CHURCH,
North and West streets. Divine services—morning (Trinity Sunday) at 10 a. m. Short semi-church service in the evening without sermon at 7:30 o'clock. Anthem in the evening.
"The Earth is the Lord's." Music by vested choir. All welcome. Holy Communion at 7:30 a. m. Sunday school at 11:30 a. m.

ST. PAUL'S EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH,
Tanner street. Rev. J. H. Hutton, pastor. Church on the Lord's day, June 9, at 10:15 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 9 a. m. Young People's Luther society meets at 6:30 p. m.
Seats free and all are welcome.

MAIN ST. PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Sabbath school at 9 a. m. Children's Day services at 10:15, with baptism of children. Third Street Mission School at 2 p. m. Junior C.
E. at 2:30. Senior C. E. at 6:45 and sermon on "Sin as Root, and as Fruit"
at 7:30. Gospel service at 7:30 Thursday evening. All made welcome. W. S. SMITH, Pastor.

GENERAL SYNOD LUTHERAN CHURCH,
corner Spring and Pierce streets.
Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching service at 10:15 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.
Rev. S. C. E. at 8:30 p. m. Welcome to all. J. J. MILLER, Pastor.

EPWORTH M. E. CHURCH.

Sunday school at 9 a. m. Preaching
at 10:15 a. m.; subject, "The Difference Between a Man and a Sheep."
Class meeting at 11:15 a. m. Epworth League at 6:30 p. m. Preaching at 7:30 p. m. by Rev. E. T. Bowdle.
J. F. OLIVE, Pastor.

ST. PAUL A. M. E. CHURCH.

Preaching at 10:30 a. m. by the pastor. The Children's Day exercises by the Sabbath school will be the interesting feature of the day, both afternoon and evening. Songs, recitations and addresses. All are invited. W. H. COLEMAN, Pastor.

CALVARY REFORMED CHURCH,
Corner High and Cemetery streets.
Divine services Trinity Sunday 10 o'clock. Sunday school 3 p. m. Endeavor 6:40. Regular preaching 7:30
p. m. Weekly prayer meeting Wednesday evening 7:30. All are invited to these meetings.
DANIEL BURGHAETER, Pastor.

ZION'S LUTHERAN CHURCH, TANNER
STREET.
To-morrow will be missionary day,
both morning and evening service being devoted to the subject. The morning hour (10 o'clock) will be occupied by the Sunday school, which will render a well prepared service of

J. Murray. The evening hour will be taken by the Luther League, services beginning at 7:30. All are cordially invited. The following is the evening programme:

1. Anthem
2. Introit
3. Hymn
4. Scripture Lesson and Prayer
5. Confession and Response
6. Anthem
7. Recitation—Is It Nothing to You?
8. Psalm—John G. Paton
9. Hymn
10. Select Reading The best Guide
11. Essay—Mission Work
12. Anthem
13. Address
14. Offering and Collection
15. Hymn
16. Benediction

CARL A. ACKERMANN, Pastor.

The Camp Meeting

To be held under the auspices of St. Paul A. M. E. church, will be conducted on the spiritual line. The ministers engaged and expected to be present during the meeting are Bishop B. W. Arnett, D. D. Rev.
John W. A. Barry, P. Elder: Rev. C.
P. Harrington, the great camp meeting evangelist; Sister M. Furguson, the noted woman evangelist; Rev. L.
W. White, and others.

That scrupulous taint which has been in your blood for years, will be expelled by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla,
the great blood purifier.

NOTICE

To Those Knowing Themselves to be Indebted to D. Bell.

As I have sold out of the dry goods
and being desirous of closing up my books as soon as possible, you will confer a great favor by calling at my former store, where Mr. Campbell, the booker, is authorized to settle all accounts. Thanking you in advance for compliance with above request,
and for patronage.

Yours truly,
D. BELL.

I. O. O. F. Notice.
Members of Allen Lodge and visiting members meet in Allen Lodge room at 2 o'clock to-morrow to attend
memorial services at Trinity Methodist church. Rev. Bumgarner will conduct services.

I. F. WHIGHT, Rec. Sec'y.

Those Who Attended
the closing concert at the College
last year will know what to expect next Tuesday evening. You will regret it if you do not attend.

Harness.
We are making a specialty of fine
hand-made Buggy Harness.

W. A. GERMAN, Salesman, 121 West High street, opposite Gazette
office. Phone 5-16-14

Midsummer

Night's Dream is seldom heard outside of the larger cities. Don't miss it.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world to Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt
Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetters, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no money required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money returned. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Melville Bros.

The Bird's Service to Men.

Before many years have passed the legislatures of our states and nation will be forced to some action on the needless destruction of birds. The robins and bluebirds and wrens and the hundreds of glad little singers of the woods and fields have been driven away not merely from the cities, which they used to inhabit, but from the villages on the outskirts, and in some cases from even the isolated hamlets. The increase in insect pests within two or three years
betokens a grave danger, and the cheapest and surest way to meet it is to stop killing the birds and let them return and dine upon the moths and caterpillars
and the rest of the evil tribe that strip our trees and gardens. It will take many years, at best, to restore them in such numbers as they could be reckoned by a dozen or 20 years ago, but people by ceasing to be sportsmen, or at least by ceasing to kill the birds that are of no
use as food, can bring good times back.
—Exchange.

Highest Honors—World's Fair.

DR.
PRICE'S

CREAM BAKING POWDER
MOST PERFECT MADE.

Price's Cream of Tartar Powder. For Baking Ammonia, Alum or any other adulterant.
40 YEARS THE STANDARD.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Notice.
All members of Lima Lodge 551
I. O. O. F. are requested to meet at their temple at 2 o'clock p. m. sharp
to attend memorial services at Trinity
M. E. church to-morrow at 2:30 p. m.
All visiting members of the order are invited to attend.
LEONARD WALTHER, Secy.
Wm. Shultz, N. F.

The Lima College Band
Will give a band social Monday evening, June 10, on the campus, from 5 to 8 o'clock.

SHIRT WAISTS. Six hundred seems
waists, but we would buy more if
they could be had. 99-36

THE MAXIMUM OF VALUE FOR THE MINIMUM OF PRICE.

There you have our platform—our business foundation.
Our endeavor to give you the most for the least.

Our line of Men's Suits at $6.50, $8.00 and $10.00

Are honest, well made and correct fitting Merchandise, or

Big Value For Little Money.

Our Children's Clothing is the talk of the town. A handsome Clock given away.

LOEWENSTEIN BROS.,

Successors to GUS KALE,

Clothing and Furnishers, 28 and 30 Union Block.

WE'VE GOT THEM!

Those Elegant Tan Shoes

Lace and button, AAA to E, new elegant razor toes, for $3.50.

This is absolutely the handsomest ladies' tan shoes in the city, and equal to any $5.00 shoe
made.

Special inducements on ladies' Tan Oxfords.

Style, Fit and Wear!

In all our shoes—Everything guaranteed at the COLUMBIA.

OXFORDS! OXFORDS!

Black, Tan and White; Ladies' Misses, and Children's, all the latest novelties in summer
shoes.

500 pairs ladies' elegant style Oxfords, all widths, worth $1.50, for 98c.
If you cannot find what you want come to us;
we've got them.

Leaders of Styles and Popular Prices.

COLUMBIA SHOE STORE,

Opposite Post Office, Lima, Ohio.

at.

PRICE THREE CENTS

of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

even by a boy, but by a
The south side gentle-
ve information that the
driven by a thirteen-year-
at have been one of the ms who were too badly
to know whether or not
driving the team.

any have no boys in their
would not entrust their sm.

Another Big Well.

A. A. Scott and John Kerr, of this city, and H. C. Sottlage, of Wapak-oneta, drilled in a big well in the
new pool three miles east of St.
Marys yesterday. The well was two and a half screws in the sand and began flowing.

Mr. Scott, who went down yesterday to see the well come in, has not
yet returned, but from the reports
the well is a big gusher and will do
a couple of hundred barrels at least
to start with.

OIL NOTES.

The Young, Hoffman & Zimmer-
man No. 2, on the Ridenour farm, in
Perry town, is due to-morrow

Minor Harrod's well on the Apple
farm was due to-day, but the drillers
lost the tools and are now fishing for
them.

WANTED.

WANTED—Shoes. Heating stoves, cook shoes, gasoline stoves, refrigerators,
baby cars and all kinds of household goods.
Highest prices paid for goods sent out of town.
New Second Hand Store, 131 East Market
street. 3-06

WANTED—A good girl for general house
work. Call at 515 East High street. 1-36

FOR RENT—Large, nicely furnished room,
very reasonable. Call at room 3, Crossley block, 204 South Main street. 1-36

WANTED—A good girl for general house
work. Call at 515 East High street. 1-36

FOR SALE OR TRADE—A 1 and 2 story, 7
room residence, with barn, etc., on west
North street. Enquire of
Geo. Fritz, Agent. 1-36

WANTED—Two ladies to canvass, upon
guaranteed salary of $2.50 per day.
Address No. 12, Harris Block, Findlay, Ohio.
2-36

WANTED—A girl for general housework,
at 800 South Main street. 1-36

GIRL WANTED—Good wages paid com

BOUND TO GO
see them you won't go without them.

Prices,
s Great May Festival

des a present equal in value to you,
cold weather, dull time, cut no figure les so good, and treatment so just, that will find our line of summer footwear

WAUGH.

In An Old Buggy, N BE BOUGHT SO CHEAP?

We are Agents for the best and finest Sur
reys, Buggies, Pha
etons, Farm Wagons and Carts in the country,
either factory or hand
made. All below competition prices.

HARNESS.

We have added a har ness department and have employed first class workmen, and are making a specialty of HAND-MADE work.
We also do harness re pairing.

We invite your pat ronage.

ERMANN,
Salesman.

the Gazette Office.

THE Investment Bank.

BAXTER & SONS,

8 West High Street, OHIO.

y, Municipal and School Bonds, Real er, Bank and Industrial Stocks bought has merit and sell only that which we ional Bank.

THE

A. OHIO.

..... $100,000.00

S SOLICITED.

RESIDENT.

CASHIER.

CUNNINGHAM, ASSISTANT CASHIER

blue silk, to begin with, and it has a lace ruffle at the neck and lace cas cades down the front.

There is nothing like making your economies look as if you preferred
them so.—Ellen Osborn in Kansas City Star.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

SHIRT WAISTS Just arrived at Treat's. Buy one and you will soon be in it. 99-36

Ask the Grocer
SOUDERS'

10 cent LEMON
15 cent VANILLA

EXTRACTS

The best that can be made for the money. Note the fine flavor and saving in price. Green label.

SOLD EVERYWHERE.

SOUDERS' EXTRACTS
SOLD EVERYWHERE.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

Washington, June 8.—The Senators
were unable to handle the bill in
which came from the speakers' desks. At
attendance 5,000.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—St. Louis
made it twice straight from the Phila
by banging a case all over the field.

SPAIN ON THE LOOKOUT.

Gunboat Patrolling the Florida and Georgia Coasts.

WATCHING FOR FILIBUSTERS.

Said an Expedition Will Start in Several Weeks.

QUESADA IS NOW WORKING HARD

To Stir Up More Enthusiasm Among the Cubans in Florida—Cubans in a Single Cigar Factory Agree to Payable One Hundred of the One Thousand Rifles
Wanted Within the Next Month—Cap tain General Campos Wants No Assist ant to Help him.

FERNANDEZ, Fla., June 8.—Captain
Lassore, of the pilot boat Francis Eliza beth has just arrived and reports sight
ing Thursday afternoon a Spanish gun boat cruising about six miles off the shore. The gunboat was steaming rap idly from the south. The captain of the pilot boat concluded she wanted a pilot
and made toward her, but when the gun boat observed this she changed her course.

Considerable excitement was created
here by the pilot captain's story, as it was not before believed that Spain con sidered the Florida and south Georgia coast of sufficient importance in re spect to filibusters to be patrolled by a gun boat.

Captain Johnson of the schooner
Greenleaf from New York arrived here yesterday and substantiated the story told by Captain Lassore.

The secret Cuban cabinet finished for the present its business yesterday and departed. None of the party would deny or affirm the report that they were awaiting the arrival of Jose Marti, who is said to be en route here now.

AN EXPEDITION FITTING OUT.
It Will Not Be Ready to Start For Several Weeks.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., June 8.—Gonzalez Quisada, secretary of the Cuban party, returned here yesterday from Fernandina. When questioned about the report that he was planning for a filibustering expedition from somewhere
on the Florida coast, he laughed and said
he thought it would be better
not to say too much for publication.

A Cuban who is closely connected with him in the work said that the ex pedition would not start for several weeks.

Quisada addressed the Cuban cigar makers at the El Moreto factory. Among other things, he said he wanted 1,000 rifles within the next month. He asked the cigar makers at the factory to furnish 100 of them, which they agreed to do.

Wants No Assistance.
HAVANA, June 8.—Captain General
Campos has telegraphed the government at Madrid stating that he does not need at the present time a lieutenant general to help him.

JAPS LOST BUT EIGHT MEN
During the Military Movements in Occu pying Formosa.

HONGKONG, June 8.—Advices from Formosa indicate that changes are rapidly taking place in the Japanese army. The Japanese troops have reached Taipei and established headquarters at that point.
The natives of Formosa are submitting readily to the rule of the Japanese.

The Japanese losses during the military movements in occupying the island
amounted to only eight men.

The Chinese carried away millions of dollars' worth of property from the Chi nese fortifications during the fighting which followed the detention of the steamer of ex-Governor and ex-President Tang Ching, who was making an effort to escape from the island, killed and 17
wounded.

The German gunboat Itzho replied to the bombardment from the fortifications on the Formosa shore and the natives and Chinese deserted their positions. The forts were quickly silenced. According to all reports 13 natives were killed by the cannonade of the Itzho.

To Rescue Peary.
ST. JOHN'S, N. F., June 8.—The whalerboat Kite has been chartered to carry an expedition of 10 persons to Greenland to rescue Lieutenant Peary, the Arctic explorer. Emil Dibelch, the Peary's brother-in-law, will have charge of the party. Mrs. Peary will accompany the party but will wait for the return of her husband at St. John's. The Kite will start about the middle of next month.

Double Tragedy.
LEXINGTON, Ky., June 8.—A double
tragedy was enacted here when a negro
named George Green went into the room
where his wife was sleeping and shot
her twice through the head with a
bullet. Green then shot himself in the head and attempted to kill himself.
Green's wife had refused to
live with him.

To Out the Railroad.
PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—United States
District Attorney Ingram has filed a
petition in the United States circuit
court asking for have condemned the
two strips of land belonging to the Get
tysburg Electric Railway company,
which are wanted by the United States
to preserve the Gettysburg battlefield.

Fifty People Killed.
STUTTGART, June 8.—Telegrams from
the Black Forests of Wurttemberg,
which was overpowered by a cloudburst
Wednesday night, state that 50 persons
were killed in the Balingen district and
all of the bridges spanning the river
were carried away.

Irish Nationalist Dead.
NEW YORK, June 8.—Dr. William B
Wallace, who was vice president of the Irish National Federation of America
died at his home in this city.

Double Tragedy.
LEXINGTON, Ky., June 8.—A double
tragedy was enacted here when a negro
named George Green went into the room
where his wife was sleeping and shot
her twice through the head with a
bullet. Green then shot himself in the head and attempted to kill himself.
Green's wife had refused to
live with him.

To Out the Railroad.
PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—United States
District Attorney Ingram has filed a
petition in the United States circuit
court asking for have condemned the
two strips of land belonging to the Get
tysburg Electric Railway company,
which are wanted by the United States
to preserve the Gettysburg battlefield.

Fifty People Killed.
STUTTGART, June 8.—Telegrams from
the Black Forests of Wurttemberg,
which was overpowered by a cloudburst
Wednesday night, state that 50 persons
were killed in the Balingen district and
all of the bridges spanning the river
were carried away.

Irish Nationalist Dead.
NEW YORK, June 8.—Dr. William B
Wallace, who was vice president of the
Irish National Federation of America
died at his home in this city.

Double Tragedy.
LEXINGTON, Ky., June 8.—A double
tragedy was enacted here when a negro
named George Green went into the room
where his wife was sleeping and shot
her twice through the head with a
bullet. Green then shot himself in the head and attempted to kill himself.
Green's wife had refused to
live with him.

To Out the Railroad.
PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—United States
District Attorney Ingram has filed a
petition in the United States circuit
court asking for have condemned the
two strips of land belonging to the Get
tysburg Electric Railway company,
which are wanted by the United States
to preserve the Gettysburg battlefield.

Fifty People Killed.
STUTTGART, June 8.—Telegrams from
the Black Forests of Wurttemberg,
which was overpowered by a cloudburst
Wednesday night, state that 50 persons
were killed in the Balingen district and
all of the bridges spanning the river
were carried away.

Irish Nationalist Dead.
NEW YORK, June 8.—Dr. William B
Wallace, who was vice president of the
Irish National Federation of America
died at his home in this city.

Double Tragedy.
LEXINGTON, Ky., June 8.—A double
tragedy was enacted here when a negro
named George Green went into the room
where his wife was sleeping and shot
her twice through the head with a
bullet. Green then shot himself in the head and attempted to kill himself.
Green's wife had refused to
live with him.

To Out the Railroad.
PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—United States
District Attorney Ingram has filed a
petition in the United States circuit
court asking for have condemned the
two strips of land belonging to the Get
tysburg Electric Railway company,
which are wanted by the United States
to preserve the Gettysburg battlefield.

Fifty People Killed.
STUTTGART, June 8.—Telegrams from
the Black Forests of Wurttemberg,
which was overpowered by a cloudburst
Wednesday night, state that 50 persons
were killed in the Balingen district and
all of the bridges spanning the river
were carried away.

Irish Nationalist Dead.
NEW YORK, June 8.—Dr. William B
Wallace, who was vice president of the
Irish National Federation of America
died at his home in this city.

Double Tragedy.
LEXINGTON, Ky., June 8.—A double
tragedy was enacted here when a negro
named George Green went into the room
where his wife was sleeping and shot
her twice through the head with a
bullet. Green then shot himself in the head and attempted to kill himself.
Green's wife had refused to
live with him.

To Out the Railroad.
PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—United States
District Attorney Ingram has filed a
petition in the United States circuit
court asking for have condemned the
two strips of land belonging to the Get
tysburg Electric Railway company,
which are wanted by the United States
to preserve the Gettysburg battlefield.

Fifty People Killed.
STUTTGART, June 8.—Telegrams from
the Black Forests of Wurttemberg,
which was overpowered by a cloudburst
Wednesday night, state that 50 persons
were killed in the Balingen district and
all of the bridges spanning the river
were carried away.

Irish Nationalist Dead.
NEW YORK, June 8.—Dr. William B
Wallace, who was vice president of the
Irish National Federation of America
died at his home in this city.

Double Tragedy.
LEXINGTON, Ky., June 8.—A double
tragedy was enacted here when a negro
named George Green went into the room
where his wife was sleeping and shot
her twice through the head with a
bullet. Green then shot himself in the head and attempted to kill himself.
Green's wife had refused to
live with him.

To Out the Railroad.
PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—United States
District Attorney Ingram has filed a
petition in the United States circuit
court asking for have condemned the
two strips of land belonging to the Get
tysburg Electric Railway company,
which are wanted by the United States
to preserve the Gettysburg battlefield.

Fifty People Killed.
STUTTGART, June 8.—Telegrams from
the Black Forests of Wurttemberg,
which was overpowered by a cloudburst
Wednesday night, state that 50 persons
were killed in the Balingen district and
all of the bridges spanning the river
were carried away.

Irish Nationalist Dead.
NEW YORK, June 8.—Dr. William B
Wallace, who was vice president of the
Irish National Federation of America
died at his home in this city.

Double Tragedy.
LEXINGTON, Ky., June 8.—A double
tragedy was enacted here when a negro
named George Green went into the room
where his wife was sleeping and shot
her twice through the head with a
bullet. Green then shot himself in the head and attempted to kill himself.
Green's wife had refused to
live with him.

To Out the Railroad.
PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—United States
District Attorney Ingram has filed a
petition in the United States circuit
court asking for have condemned the
two strips of land belonging to the Get
tysburg Electric Railway company,
which are wanted by the United States
to preserve the Gettysburg battlefield.

Fifty People Killed.
STUTTGART, June 8.—Telegrams from
the Black Forests of Wurttemberg,
which was overpowered by a cloudburst
Wednesday night, state that 50 persons
were killed in the Balingen district and
all of the bridges spanning the river
were carried away.

IN A FEW WORDS.

Interesting Items Made Brief Because of Lack of Space.

Will Down Ball Game at North-Hon. Ark.
Arkansas Republicans are for McKinley
for president.

English sportsmen think that the Corn wall crew is too light.

Tennyson's "Mystery" Billy
Smith has agreed to meet
Cleveland muddlers will probably strike
next week for a restoration of wages.

A cyclone passed six miles west of Sum mit, S. D., causing large loss of property.
Extreme floods are prevailing in the north of Spain and the southwest of France.

A cloudburst in Wurttemberg, Germany, inundated a vast territory and drowned
many people.

The Chicago running horse men are looking for a site for a new racetrack
across the Indiana line.

At Birmingham, Ala., Lee Harris and Ald. Mitchell, editor of the "Post", were hanged in the jail yard.

d's saparilla

Is the Best Blood Purifier, Appetizer and Nerve Tonic. It cures
That Tired Feeling

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Hear Mrs. J. K. Brice
in her rendition of "Midsummer Night's Dream" at the Lima College on Tuesday evening next.

WANTED.

GIRL WANTED—Good wages paid com-
pulsory. 200 west Market st. 1-30

WANTED—Experienced dining room girl.
Apply at once at Burton House. 1-30

WANTED—Large team of black mules, wagon and harness; will sell cheap. Call on E. A. Hays, 544 west McKillop street. 5-30

WANTED—Girl to do general housework.
Inquire at 428 east High street. 5-30

WANTED—Men who will work for $10
month salary or large commission selling goods by sample to dealers. Experience necessary. Write us. Household Specialty
Co., Cincinnati, Ohio. 5-30

LADIES' AND CHILDREN'S HAIR cleaned, smoothed and treated. The seven Southwestern Barber Shop, 120 east High street.
9-10

WANTED—Roomers and boarders at 120
east High street. Front rooms nicely
and neatly furnished. 5-30

FOR SALE—Choice of 20 lots near E. Kibby street school house. At low price and very easy terms. Will advance money to build with if required. Also west Market st.
lot, 100 ft. on easy terms. Call on E. J. Hays.
5-30

AGENTS WANTED—For standard maps
and encyclopedias. Books, Art Re-producers. See to day. Send $5. for 100
all Map U. S. and World, six feet long, beautifully colored. Best value. No experience needed. Send $5. Exclusive territory. Rand, McNally & Co., Chicago. 5-30

A Former Lima Lady Writes.

GLASGOW, Ky., May 27, 1908.
DEAR DR. KERR:—In gratitude to you, and for the benefit of others who are suffering as I have done, I must tell you what your little has done for me. I have been suffering from a cough for several years,
and have been unable to do any work.
After taking your medicine for a short time
the cough ceased, and I am now well.
My throat is entirely well.
Your true friend,
Mrs. Lewis Perkins.

Dr. Kerr's office is at 120 east High street,
up stairs.

Ice House E. High st. Office 907 E. High St.

For Pure Spring Water Ice

Send your order to Wm. Pugh. All orders promptly attended to. Telephone No. 2.
W.M. PUGH.

NO. 54
East Side Public Square. First-class Barber Shop, Ladies' and Children's Haircutting done to order. Special room for ladies' hair dressing. A. G. LUTZ, Proprietor.

Mrs. Kemper's
Dressmaking establishment in the Barber
block is headquarters for the World's Best Premium Tailor System, which will be taught to those wishing to learn the same. Satisfaction guaranteed. 114-4

Lima Repair Shop.
An experience of 10 years in the Pioneer
New Shop of the west. (Clegg & Co.) indies us in saying that we will guarantee you satisfaction on that line. The Steel Flow, and Stacy work carefully attended to.
permanently. All kinds of iron implements repaired. Steel Tools of different kinds and for various purposes in all the shops of the city
made to order.
We respectfully solicit a portion of your patronage, and will endeavor to meet your wishes in every particular.

LIMA REPAIR SHOP,
South East Cor. Main and Spring.

The Citizens' Loan Building Co
No. 323
N. MAIN ST.
LIMA, O.
Incorporated
March, 1905.

Money loaned on city and farm property.
Low interest, with small and easy payments.
Long time, with privilege of paying off as fast as the borrower may desire. Call for pamphlet for particulars. GEO. FELTZ, Secretary.

For Building Material,
Cement, Lumber, Brick, Fire, Rock, Coal, Oil and Gasoline.

GO TO G. M. McCULLOUGH'S,
EAST MARKET STREET.

SOX!

Do You Wear Them? If You Do, Here is a Chance for a Supply at a Bargain.

Between the hours of 9 a. m. and 6 p. m.
NEXT MONDAY ONLY. we will sell our 90c Hose (sold elsewhere for 25c) for 12½c
a pair. (Will not sell less than 2 pair or more than 6 pair to one person. Next day they will be regular price again. These socks are made of fine cotton, and perfectly seamless;
worth 25c a pair. Remember, sale lasts from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. only.

Michael
Opera House Block.

TALES OF THE TOWN.
Buckeye Pipe Line runs June 6th,
8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31.
Mrs. Sol Kissell, of 300 second street, is seriously ill.
M. A. Haines has sold his flour and seed store in the Swiss block to J. J.
Smith.
Policeman Tinkham looked up Spot? Thomas this morning for rubbish.
The Lima Car Works is erecting a number shed 28x120 feet in size, on their grounds in south Lima.
The Marion Lodge of Elks lost $180
by their circus on Thursday. The expenses were $1,680 and receipts

$1,500.
There will be no morning services
at the Disciple church, as Rev. De Miller will be at a funeral out of the city. Evening services as usual.
Court will open Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock at which time Judge
Richie will decide a number of cases which he has had under consideration.
Mr. John Dimond has purchased the Lambertson property at 612 east Market street. Mr. Dimond intends erecting a new home on the premises
in the near future.
The jury in the case of Jenkins vs.
The O. R. Selfridge Company concluded in common pleas court yesterday, returned a verdict of no cause of action about 5 o'clock last evening.
Mike Clifford, who is wanted here
for assaulting conductor Clifford, of the C. H. & D., has been located in St. Wayne. The charge is not serious enough to have him brought back to Ohio.
Chas. Halladay went to Lima this afternoon. He will endeavor to make arrangements for the production of "The Old Veteran" by the members of Sidney Lodge I. O. O. F.
in Lima under the auspices of Lima Lodge I. O. O. F.—Sidney News.
Coal—Hard, Soft
And smithing coal, at Mayo's. 1-1

209 NORTH MAIN STREET.
209 NORTH MAIN STREET.

THEY ARE SELLING FREELY!
READ THE LIST! MANY NEW ARRIVALS!

Black, Tans and Fancies.
Come now.
Pure white, unbleached and Natural.
in great variety and prices are cooling.
Black, White, Navy, Cardinal. All widths.
Black and Silver in new effects.
Black, Silver and Pearl.
Prices are right.

REYNO H. TREAT,
The Oldest Dry Goods Store.

REYNO H. TREAT,
The Oldest Dry Goods Store.

REYNO H. TREAT,
The Oldest Dry Goods Store.

MUST PRACTICE.

Go to Bed Early and Not Touch a Drop of Boose.

Strict Rules Laid Down to the Members of the Lima Team Last Evening.

Both the Lima and Columbus clubs played their usual rank game yesterday. Lima, however, was the winner. "Kid" Faurst pitched a winning game, but his supply was of the worst kind, eight errors being made in one inning after two men were out. Seventeen errors in all were made by the Lima, and Columbus was but little better. The audience was smaller than the day before.
Lima people are tired of putting up their good money to see the Lima beat their adversaries in piling up the most errors. The score was 11
to 14 in favor of Columbus.

The management of the Lima club
last night laid down three rules,
which it is announced will be rigidly enforced, in an effort to get better ball out of the team. Players must be in bed at 11 o'clock each night.
Boozing will not be allowed. The first player caught taking a drink
will be fined $2, and he will be dis-honorably discharged for the second offense. The club will practice 30
the park each morning at 9 o'clock
when at home. They are good rules and if they are enforced will be productive of better base ball.

NOTES.

Bridges pitched to-day's game.
Short Stop Barnes will captain the team hereafter.

The Watt Towns were to have played Frank De Voe's "Colts" yesterday but they failed to materialize.

The S. O. R. challenges the home team to play the next time they have no date to play any of the inter-state games.

Center fielder Wilbur has been released and there are several more who will receive a cakewalk unless better ball is put up by them.

Rupert, who umpired yesterday's game and who has played with Kansas City in the Western league, was signed last night and will be seen behind the bat at to-day's game.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Who They Are. Where They Have Been and are Going.

P. A. Atkinson is in Cincinnati.
Harry G. Myers is in Montpelier, Ind.

Harry Wykoff will leave next week
for Omaha, Neb.

J. L. Orblson returned to Carthage
this morning after a visit here.

Walter Bloom, of the South Lima Lumber company, was in Toledo today.

Will Boone is home from Case
School, Cleveland, to spend his vacation.

Mrs. C. W. Scott, of Monroe,
Mich., is the guest of Mrs. J. Y.
Marmon.

I. F. Clem, manager of the Lima Business college, went to Sidney this morning.

Mrs. Scott and daughter Lillian, of St. Paul, are guests of G. C. Scott and family.

Charles Walters, of Findlay, will be the guest of Miss Kiddle Shea, of Second street.

Miss Anna Armstrong left this afternoon for a visit with her brother Ben, at Fremont.

W. S. Ayers and wife, of south Market street, are entertaining his parents from Dayton.

Wm. Mills and his nephew, Willie Mills, of Second street, have returned from a visit Sharon, Pa.

Manager Epoch Somers, of the Lima base ball team, returned last evening from Columbus.

Miss Edith Shibley, of Spencerville, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Grant Hamilton, of Second street.

Miss Lizzie Mills, of Sharon, Pa., is the guest of her brother, Robert Mills and family, of Second street.

Mrs. T. J. Mullen, of west Kibby street, is home after a pleasant visit with Mr. Mullen's sister in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Zais, of Philadelphia, are the guests of Mrs. L.
Gottfried and family, of west North
street.

J. Fred France, of Huntington, Ind., a prominent young attorney of that place was in town yesterday taking depositions.

Mr. John McFarland, of Forest avenue, returned this evening from Sidney where he has been several days on business.

Mrs. Chas. Benke and Mrs. Grant
Hamilton, of Second street, have returned home after a week's visit with friends in Spencerville.

Mrs. W. F. Hoover and daughter Pauline returned yesterday from Marion, where they spent the past week visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Frances Freeman, who graduates from Oberlin next Thursday, was in the city last evening in attendance at the Commencement exercises.

Mrs. Frank Stump, Mrs. Louis
Leitch, Mrs. Stenley and Mrs.
Keller of Delphos, visited Mrs. Geo.
Schafer, of 131 east Wayne street,
yesterday.

Mrs. Chas. Duval, of the Spencer

road, was called to Chicago this morning by the death of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gerald.
Mrs. Gerald is a daughter of Mrs.
Duval.

Mr. Snyder's Funeral.

The funeral of Daniel Snyder, who died yesterday, from a cancer, will leave the residence, 591 south Pine street, at 8:30 o'clock to-morrow morning and the services will be conducted by the Knights Templar, from the Fairmount church, ten miles southeast of the city.

CARD FROM
D. BELL.

My retiring from the active dry goods business in Lima is not unmixed with regret, as I have made many warm friends as well as customers in the past ten years. But my business, I am happy to say, passes into the hands of my successors in first class shape, and this spring
shows a large increase over any former year; and although Messrs. Carroll & Cooney are strangers in the city, but they are well known throughout the dry goods trade as among the most progressive and hustling merchants in the State of Ohio, and it is only to such men I would relinquish such a business. I heartily bespeak for them a continuance of the liberal patronage bestowed upon Yours very sincerely,
D. BELL.

Y. M. C. A.

Interesting News Picked up About the Popular Resort.

The study of the Sunday school will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock instead of 7 o'clock as heretofore.
All interested in the lesson in any way are welcome.

For the summer months payments
on memberships can be made in installments: One-third down, one-third in sixty days and one-third in ninety days. Any self-respecting young man may join on these terms.

The annual lecture course conference of the Ohio associations will be held in conjunction with the general secretaries and physical director's conference at Columbus next week.
Lima will be represented.

The plunge bath is one of the most popular places in the city in the warm weather. It is kept constantly at a temperature of 80 degrees and is always ready for use. It is the finest place in the city to bathe.

The Juniors had a fine time at Mc-Cullough's lake this afternoon. A good crowd was present. The boys enjoyed the swim immensely.

The men's meeting to-morrow at 8:30 p. m. promises to be of unusual interest. It is the last of the special series of meetings which have been held recently. Rev. E. S. DeMiller will speak on "Christianity's Achievements." A large chorus of male voices will sing and Mr. I. R. Longworth will sing a solo. A good meeting is assured. All men are invited.

Four Big Successes.

Having the needed merit to make more than good all the advertising claimed for them, the following four remedies have reached a phenomenal sale. Dr. King's New Discovery, for Consumption, Coughs and Colds,
and the guaranteed Electric Bitters, the great remedy for Liver, Stomach and Kidneys. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world,
and Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are a perfect pill. All these remedies are guaranteed to do just what is claimed for them and the dealer whose name is attached herewith will be glad to tell you more of them. Sold at Melville's Drug Store.

AMONG THE RAILROADS.

Switch engine No. 4, of the L. E.
& W., was recently wrecked in the yards at Sandusky and is being overhauled at the shops.

Brakeman Frank Strohl, of the L.
E. & W., has been promoted to an extra conductor and is running conductor Chas. Jeffries' car.

The Long Haired Lady

at Vorkamp's drug store, northeast corner Main and North streets, will remain another week. We would advise all who have scalp trouble or whose hair does not grow as they wish it, to call. Consultation every afternoon and evening free. 1-1

Hover's Lake

will be thrown open to the public for the summer of '08 upon next Tuesday evening, at which time there will be a free band concert. Come and see.
More boats, more electric lights,
larger lake, larger park. Picnic parties, public meetings, Sunday school picnics, organizations, secret or frater-nals, one and all are invited to make arrangements with the manager, who is always on the ground, or call up No. 20, for any gathering contemplated. There will be no charges for the park except upon extra occasions. The press will give notice when charges are proposed.
1-30

Visit the Fur Exhibit

of Sussman & Hoffmann, of Toledo,
at the Lima House Tuesday, June 11.
If you have furs to be repaired bring them to the Lima House and Mr.
Sussman will give you an estimate.
Don't fail to see the new line of fur
capas at the Lima House. 1-20

You Can Find —AT— GOODING'S

SHOES

In Russia Tan, Dongola
Tan, French Dongola, Vici Kid and Soft Dongola.

OXFORDS

In Russia Tan, Dongola
Tan, White Canvas, Patent Leather and Vici Kid. All sizes and widths.

SLIPPERS

In White Kid, Patent Leather, Vici Kid and Dongola. All styles, all sizes, all widths.

FOR MEN'S WEAR.

Patent Leather, Russia Tans, Cordovan, Opera and Everett Slippers. All widths.

SAVE TIME AND MONEY

By coming where you can find the

Largest Stock, Complete assortment.

Finest Goods
and Lowest Prices,
And that is at

GOODING'S,
230 North Main St.

at.

PRICE THREE CENTS

of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

oyal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

even by a boy, but by a
The south side gentle-
information that the
driven by a thirteen-year-
old have been one of the sons who were too badly
to know whether or not
driving the team.
any have no boys in their
would not entrust their
m.

ANOTHER BIG WELL.
A. A. Scott and John Kerr, of this city, and H. C. Settlage, of Wapak-
oneta, drilled in a big well in the
new pool three miles east of St.
Marys yesterday. The well was 80 feet and a half screws in the sand and began flowing.

Mr. Scott, who went down yester-
day to see the well come in, has not
yet returned, but from the reports
the well is a big gusher and will do
a couple of hundred barrels at least
to start with.

OIL NOTES.
The Young, Hoffman & Zimmer-
man No. 2, on the Ridenour farm, in
Perry town, is due to-morrow.

Minor Harrod's well on the Apple
farm was due to-day, but the drillers
lost the tools and are now fishing for
them.

WANTED.
WANTED—Stoves, heating stoves, cook
stoves, gasolene stoves, refrigerators,
baby cars and all kinds of household goods.
Highest prices paid for goods east of Cleveland. New Second Hand store, 121 east Market
street. 5-30

WANTED—A good girl for general house-
work. Call at 510 east High street. 1-30

FOR RENT—Large, nicely furnished room,
very reasonable. Call at room 8, Crescent block, 20½ south Main street. 1-30

WANTED—A good girl for general house-
work. Call at 510 east High street. 1-30

FOR SALE OR TRADE—A 1 and 2 story,
room residence, with barn, etc., on west
North street. Enquire of Geo. Fritz, Agent. 1-30

WANTED—Two ladies to canvass, upon
guaranteed salary of $10 per day.
Address No. 15, Harris Block, Findlay, Ohio.
5-30

WANTED—A girl for general housework,
at 810 south Main street. 1-30

GIRL WANTED—Good wages paid com-
pulsory. 200 west Market st. 1-30

WANTED—Experienced dining room girl.
Apply at once at Burton House. 1-30

WANTED—Roomers and boarders at 120
east High street. Front rooms nicely
and neatly furnished. 5-30

FOR SALE—Choice of 20 lots near E. Kibby
street school house, at low price and
very easy terms. Will advance money to
build with if required. Also west Market st.
lot, 100 ft. on easy terms. Call on E. J. Hays.
5-30

MRS. DR. M. A. KERR.
This is to certify that my eight year old daughter has nasal catarrh that would not be treated, and that she is completely cured, the cure being effected solely through
the remedies of Mrs. Dr. M. A. Kerr.

MRS. E. E. JENN.

PLE'S STORE.

ain Offerings Been as Remarkable as
ey are now.

SPECIAL
FOR MORROW

Weather Bargains.

Organdies: 10c quality, for... 5c.
n Toweling: 5c quality, for... 2c.
s: 10c quality, for... 6c.
ces Goods at Bargain prices.
est, for... 59c.
rest, for... 50c.

BLUEM,

57 Public Square.

The Bargain Dry Goods Store of Lima.

The latest designs and the most mod. hats.

THE METELLUS THOMSON

Our Summer Hats arrive and blossom in favor wherever their beauty is unfolded to feminine eyes.

Our Ladies' Hats and Bonnets all the care that can be exercised anywhere or by any body.

MOHR'S BITTERS.

The Times-Democrat.

THE TIMES-DEMOCRAT PUBLISHING CO. COUNTRYSIDE, IN NORTH MAIN ST. TELEPHONE CALL, No. 84.

TALES OF THE TOWN.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Perkins, a daughter.

Born to David Hughes and wife, of Bellefontaine avenue, a son.

The Columbus base ball club is stopping at the Burnet House.

Bids for the improving of Greenleaf avenue were opened at the city clerk's office at noon today.

The work of paving the northwest corner of the public square was finished this afternoon.

Lewis J. Woodcock, of St. Marys, has taken a position with O'Connor & Sons, insurance agents.

Street car passengers are transferred on the public square while the paving between the tracks is being done.

Ben Wert, found guilty of grand larceny and sentenced to one year, was taken to Columbus to serve his term.

Mrs. Wm. Murray states that the complaint made to the Humane Society against her was by a middle-aged neighbor and without just cause.

The case in mayor's court against the ball players has been continued indefinitely and will be dismissed providing no more Sunday ball is played.

Joe Finn, administrator of the estate of the late Jerry Finn, wishes to return thanks to the Knights of St. John for the prompt payment of his insurance.

A large number of the members of Trinity and Grace M. E. church congregations went to Wapakoneta today to attend the Epworth League convention.

The Elm Church will come off four fair weeks from yesterday and will be a success. Every body will remain in Lima that day and next and out of town friends see the big show.

At the meeting of the Board of Education.

The board met at 7:30 p. m. and the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the board of education be and they are hereby authorized to purchase a new building for the purpose of housing the public library, to be located on the corner of the public square and the city hall.

Resolved, That the board of education be and they are hereby authorized to purchase a new building for the purpose of housing the public library, to be located on the corner of the public square and the city hall.

At the meeting of the Board of Education.

The board met at 7:30 p. m. and the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the board of education be and they are hereby authorized to purchase a new building for the purpose of housing the public library, to be located on the corner of the public square and the city hall.

Resolved, That the board of education be and they are hereby authorized to purchase a new building for the purpose of housing the public library, to be located on the corner of the public square and the city hall.

At the meeting of the Board of Education.

The board met at 7:30 p. m. and the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the board of education be and they are hereby authorized to purchase a new building for the purpose of housing the public library, to be located on the corner of the public square and the city hall.

Resolved, That the board of education be and they are hereby authorized to purchase a new building for the purpose of housing the public library, to be located on the corner of the public square and the city hall.

At the meeting of the Board of Education.

The board met at 7:30 p. m. and the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the board of education be and they are hereby authorized to purchase a new building for the purpose of housing the public library, to be located on the corner of the public square and the city hall.

Resolved, That the board of education be and they are hereby authorized to purchase a new building for the purpose of housing the public library, to be located on the corner of the public square and the city hall.

At the meeting of the Board of Education.

The board met at 7:30 p. m. and the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the board of education be and they are hereby authorized to purchase a new building for the purpose of housing the public library, to be located on the corner of the public square and the city hall.

Resolved, That the board of education be and they are hereby authorized to purchase a new building for the purpose of housing the public library, to be located on the corner of the public square and the city hall.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman of Dismal, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were most marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at River Junction she was brought down with pneumonia, succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick to its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Metellus Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

MINERS STILL VOTING.

Some Favor and Some Oppose the Convention Scale.

MASILLON, O., June 8.—The miners of the state are still voting on the new scale of wages, and District President Mossop, speaking for the Massillon valley, sends this telegram from North Lawrence: "As far as the vote has been taken it shows a large majority in favor of rejecting the offer. The injustice of the offer is keenly felt."

State President Hatchford, who is again at home, is watching the vote with great interest.

If it required an annual outlay of $100.00 to insure a family against any serious consequences from an attack of bowel complaint during the year there are many who would feel their duty to pay it; that they could not afford to risk their lives and those of their family for such an amount. Any one can get this insurance for 25 cents, that being the price of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In almost every neighborhood some one has died from an attack of bowel complaint before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. One or two doses of this medicine will cure any ordinary case. It never fails. Can you afford to take the risk for so small an amount? For sale by H. F. Vortkamp, n. e. cor. Main and North streets.

Penny Wise and Pound Foolish

Are they who have not Foley's Colic and Diarrhoea Cure as a safeguard to the family. H. F. VORTKAMP, N. E. Cor. Main and North sts.

Coalton and Wellston.

JACKSON, O., June 8.—The miners of Coalton and Wellston districts held a meeting to decide by vote whether or not they should resume work at the wages given by the convention. The miners of the Coalton district receive 55 and Wellston 51 cents. The vote to accept the wages was carried by Wellston and Glen Roy over Coalton, and it is thought that all the miners will go in by Monday.

Mothers will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy especially valuable for croup and whooping cough. It will give prompt relief and is safe and pleasant. We have sold it for several years and it has never failed to give the most perfect satisfaction. G. W. Richards, Duquesne, Pa. Sold by H. F. Vortkamp, n. e. cor. Main and North streets.

Mr. G. A. Stillson, a merchant of Tampico, Ill., writes, August 10, 1891: "Clinic Kidney Cure is meeting with wonderful success. It has cured some cases here that physicians pronounced incurable. I myself, am able to testify to its merits. My face to-day is a living picture of health, and Clinic Kidney Cure has made it such. I had suffered twenty-seven years with the disease, and to-day I feel ten years younger than I did one year ago. I can obtain some wonderful certificates of its medical qualities." H. F. VORTKAMP, N. E. Cor. Main and North sts.

His Thirst Was Very Precious.

Some years ago while traveling from Kansas City to St. Louis, the seat in front of me was occupied by a typical gentleman and a man who looked like an eastern clergyman. The western man, a whole, solid, genial fellow, after telling his companion all about his western ranch and about the business which called him to Chicago, reached down in his grip and drew forth a bottle of generous proportions.

"Pardner," said he, "there's the best liquor west of Kansas City. Throw a hooker into you and give me your opinion."

The clerical looking man, though terribly shocked, managed to say, "Friend, I have not drunk for 40 years."

The Texan jumped from his seat and exclaimed: "Great guns! I would give $1,000 for your thirst."—Chicago Times-Herald.

An Ohio Father's Baby

"My wife received a special bottle of Dr. Hand's Colic Cure. For four months she hardly took her clothes off, baby cried so. The sample of Dr. Hand's Colic Cure worked like magic. I went right to the drug store and bought a 25c bottle of Dr. Hand's Pleasant Physic, and we are truly grateful that such relief has come to baby and to us."—Respectfully, Geo. M. Vaughn, Delaware, Ohio. Sold at all drug stores, 25c.

Johnson's Swim

is open, and is delightful as ever. The boys tried to wear out the marble chute yesterday. 85-6t

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

is open, and is delightful as ever. The boys tried to wear out the marble chute yesterday. 85-6t

OF A LIKENESS KEPT IN A BOOK.

Let the reader be assured, that the likeness of the prisoner, who was kept in the prison, was kept in a book. The prisoner, who was kept in the prison, was kept in a book. The prisoner, who was kept in the prison, was kept in a book.

JUSTICE IN MONACO.

I wish I had leisure to speak at length of this astonishing case, smaller than a French village, but where one finds an absolute sovereign, bishops, an array of Jesuits and divinity students more numerous than that of the prince, an artillery the ordinance of which is almost that of the late Louis XIV, principles of government more despotic than those of William of Prussia, and, in addition to all this, a magnificent toleration for the vices of humanity.

On the other hand, let us salute this virtuous peacefully disposed king, who, fearing neither invasions nor revolutions, rules tranquilly over his happy little people in the midst of a court ceremonial in which is preserved intact the tradition of four centuries, 28 hand-kissings and all the forms observed in a bygone era in the presence of great rulers.

This monarch, above everything, is neither bloodthirsty nor revengeful, and when he banishes—for he does banish—the sentence is carried out with infinite tact.

It is necessary to produce proofs of this.

A pighedged gambler, after a day of bad luck, insulted the sovereign. He was expelled from the country by royal order.

For a month he roamed around the forbidden paradise, fearing the flaming sword of the exiled king in the shape of a gentleman's saber. Finally he one day plucked up courage, crossed the frontier, gained in 30 seconds the heart of the country, entered the Casino. But another official stopped him.

"Where you not banished, monsieur?"

"Certainly I was, but I am going back by the next train."

"Oh, in that case it is all right. You can enter, monsieur."

And every week he returned, and on each occasion the same official put to him the same question, which he answered in the same fashion.

But a few years ago a serious and entirely novel case arose in the principality.

A murder had been committed.

Monaco, a native of Monaco, one of the transient strangers of whom one meets legions, but a married man, in a moment of passion had killed his wife.

He had killed her without reason, without any extenuating circumstances. This opinion was unanimous throughout the whole principality.

The supreme court was to judge this exceptional case, for never before had murder been committed, and the wretch was condemned to death.

It only remained to execute the criminal, and this was a difficult problem. The country possessed neither executioner nor guillotine.

What was to be done? On the advice of the foreign minister, the prince entered into negotiations with the French government to obtain the loan of a guillotine.

Some years ago while traveling from Kansas City to St. Louis, the seat in front of me was occupied by a typical gentleman and a man who looked like an eastern clergyman. The western man, a whole, solid, genial fellow, after telling his companion all about his western ranch and about the business which called him to Chicago, reached down in his grip and drew forth a bottle of generous proportions.

"Pardner," said he, "there's the best liquor west of Kansas City. Throw a hooker into you and give me your opinion."

The clerical looking man, though terribly shocked, managed to say, "Friend, I have not drunk for 40 years."

The Texan jumped from his seat and exclaimed: "Great guns! I would give $1,000 for your thirst."—Chicago Times-Herald.

Justice in Monaco.

I wish I had leisure to speak at length of this astonishing case, smaller than a French village, but where one finds an absolute sovereign, bishops, an array of Jesuits and divinity students more numerous than that of the prince, an artillery the ordinance of which is almost that of the late Louis XIV, principles of government more despotic than those of William of Prussia, and, in addition to all this, a magnificent toleration for the vices of humanity.

On the other hand, let us salute this virtuous peacefully disposed king, who, fearing neither invasions nor revolutions, rules tranquilly over his happy little people in the midst of a court ceremonial in which is preserved intact the tradition of four centuries, 28 hand-kissings and all the forms observed in a bygone era in the presence of great rulers.

This monarch, above everything, is neither bloodthirsty nor revengeful, and when he banishes—for he does banish—the sentence is carried out with infinite tact.

It is necessary to produce proofs of this.

A pighedged gambler, after a day of bad luck, insulted the sovereign. He was expelled from the country by royal order.

For a month he roamed around the forbidden paradise, fearing the flaming sword of the exiled king in the shape of a gentleman's saber. Finally he one day plucked up courage, crossed the frontier, gained in 30 seconds the heart of the country, entered the Casino. But another official stopped him.

"Where you not banished, monsieur?"

"Certainly I was, but I am going back by the next train."

"Oh, in that case it is all right. You can enter, monsieur."

And every week he returned, and on each occasion the same official put to him the same question, which he answered in the same fashion.

But a few years ago a serious and entirely novel case arose in the principality.

A murder had been committed.

Monaco, a native of Monaco, one of the transient strangers of whom one meets legions, but a married man, in a moment of passion had killed his wife.

He had killed her without reason, without any extenuating circumstances. This opinion was unanimous throughout the whole principality.

The supreme court was to judge this exceptional case, for never before had murder been committed, and the wretch was condemned to death.

It only remained to execute the criminal, and this was a difficult problem. The country possessed neither executioner nor guillotine.

What was to be done? On the advice of the foreign minister, the prince entered into negotiations with the French government to obtain the loan of a guillotine.

Justice in Monaco.

I wish I had leisure to speak at length of this astonishing case, smaller than a French village, but where one finds an absolute sovereign, bishops, an array of Jesuits and divinity students more numerous than that of the prince, an artillery the ordinance of which is almost that of the late Louis XIV, principles of government more despotic than those of William of Prussia, and, in addition to all this, a magnificent toleration for the vices of humanity.

On the other hand, let us salute this virtuous peacefully disposed king, who, fearing neither invasions nor revolutions, rules tranquilly over his happy little people in the midst of a court ceremonial in which is preserved intact the tradition of four centuries, 28 hand-kissings and all the forms observed in a bygone era in the presence of great rulers.

This monarch, above everything, is neither bloodthirsty nor revengeful, and when he banishes—for he does banish—the sentence is carried out with infinite tact.

It is necessary to produce proofs of this.

A pighedged gambler, after a day of bad luck, insulted the sovereign. He was expelled from the country by royal order.

For a month he roamed around the forbidden paradise, fearing the flaming sword of the exiled king in the shape of a gentleman's saber. Finally he one day plucked up courage, crossed the frontier, gained in 30 seconds the heart of the country, entered the Casino. But another official stopped him.

"Where you not banished, monsieur?"

"Certainly I was, but I am going back by the next train."

"Oh, in that case it is all right. You can enter, monsieur."

And every week he returned, and on each occasion the same official put to him the same question, which he answered in the same fashion.

But a few years ago a serious and entirely novel case arose in the principality.

A murder had been committed.

Monaco, a native of Monaco, one of the transient strangers of whom one meets legions, but a married man, in a moment of passion had killed his wife.

He had killed her without reason, without any extenuating circumstances. This opinion was unanimous throughout the whole principality.

The supreme court was to judge this exceptional case, for never before had murder been committed, and the wretch was condemned to death.

It only remained to execute the criminal, and this was a difficult problem. The country possessed neither executioner nor guillotine.

What was to be done? On the advice of the foreign minister, the prince entered into negotiations with the French government to obtain the loan of a guillotine.

Justice in Monaco.

I wish I had leisure to speak at length of this astonishing case, smaller than a French village, but where one finds an absolute sovereign, bishops, an array of Jesuits and divinity students more numerous than that of the prince, an artillery the ordinance of which is almost that of the late Louis XIV, principles of government more despotic than those of William of Prussia, and, in addition to all this, a magnificent toleration for the vices of humanity.

On the other hand, let us salute this virtuous peacefully disposed king, who, fearing neither invasions nor revolutions, rules tranquilly over his happy little people in the midst of a court ceremonial in which is preserved intact the tradition of four centuries, 28 hand-kissings and all the forms observed in a bygone era in the presence of great rulers.

This monarch, above everything, is neither bloodthirsty nor revengeful, and when he banishes—for he does banish—the sentence is carried out with infinite tact.

It is necessary to produce proofs of this.

A pighedged gambler, after a day of bad luck, insulted the sovereign. He was expelled from the country by royal order.

For a month he roamed around the forbidden paradise, fearing the flaming sword of the exiled king in the shape of a gentleman's saber. Finally he one day plucked up courage, crossed the frontier, gained in 30 seconds the heart of the country, entered the Casino. But another official stopped him.

"Where you not banished, monsieur?"

"Certainly I was, but I am going back by the next train."

"Oh, in that case it is all right. You can enter, monsieur."

And every week he returned, and on each occasion the same official put to him the same question, which he answered in the same fashion.

But a few years ago a serious and entirely novel case arose in the principality.

A murder had been committed.

Monaco, a native of Monaco, one of the transient strangers of whom one meets legions, but a married man, in a moment of passion had killed his wife.

He had killed her without reason, without any extenuating circumstances. This opinion was unanimous throughout the whole principality.

The supreme court was to judge this exceptional case, for never before had murder been committed, and the wretch was condemned to death.

It only remained to execute the criminal, and this was a difficult problem. The country possessed neither executioner nor guillotine.

What was to be done? On the advice of the foreign minister, the prince entered into negotiations with the French government to obtain the loan of a guillotine.

Justice in Monaco.

I wish I had leisure to speak at length of this astonishing case, smaller than a French village, but where one finds an absolute sovereign, bishops, an array of Jesuits and divinity students more numerous than that of the prince, an artillery the ordinance of which is almost that of the late Louis XIV, principles of government more despotic than those of William of Prussia, and, in addition to all this, a magnificent toleration for the vices of humanity.

On the other hand, let us salute this virtuous peacefully disposed king, who, fearing neither invasions nor revolutions, rules tranquilly over his happy little people in the midst of a court ceremonial in which is preserved intact the tradition of four centuries, 28 hand-kissings and all the forms observed in a bygone era in the presence of great rulers.

This monarch, above everything, is neither bloodthirsty nor revengeful, and when he banishes—for he does banish—the sentence is carried out with infinite tact.

It is necessary to produce proofs of this.

A pighedged gambler, after a day of bad luck, insulted the sovereign. He was expelled from the country by royal order.

For a month he roamed around the forbidden paradise, fearing the flaming sword of the exiled king in the shape of a gentleman's saber. Finally he one day plucked up courage, crossed the frontier, gained in 30 seconds the heart of the country, entered the Casino. But another official stopped him.

"Where you not banished, monsieur?"

"Certainly I was, but I am going back by the next train."

"Oh, in that case it is all right. You can enter, monsieur."

And every week he returned, and on each occasion the same official put to him the same question, which he answered in the same fashion.

But a few years ago a serious and entirely novel case arose in the principality.

A murder had been committed.

Monaco, a native of Monaco, one of the transient strangers of whom one meets legions, but a married man, in a moment of passion had killed his wife.

He had killed her without reason, without any extenuating circumstances. This opinion was unanimous throughout the whole principality.

The supreme court was to judge this exceptional case, for never before had murder been committed, and the wretch was condemned to death.

It only remained to execute the criminal, and this was a difficult problem. The country possessed neither executioner nor guillotine.

What was to be done? On the advice of the foreign minister, the prince entered into negotiations with the French government to obtain the loan of a guillotine.

Justice in Monaco.

I wish I had leisure to speak at length of this astonishing case, smaller than a French village, but where one finds an absolute sovereign, bishops, an array of Jesuits and divinity students more numerous than that of the prince, an artillery the ordinance of which is almost that of the late Louis XIV, principles of government more despotic than those of William of Prussia, and, in addition to all this, a magnificent toleration for the vices of humanity.

On the other hand, let us salute this virtuous peacefully disposed king, who, fearing neither invasions nor revolutions, rules tranquilly over his happy little people in the midst of a court ceremonial in which is preserved intact the tradition of four centuries, 28 hand-kissings and all the forms observed in a bygone era in the presence of great rulers.

This monarch, above everything, is neither bloodthirsty nor revengeful, and when he banishes—for he does banish—the sentence is carried out with infinite tact.

It is necessary to produce proofs of this.

A pighedged gambler, after a day of bad luck, insulted the sovereign. He was expelled from the country by royal order.

For a month he roamed around the forbidden paradise, fearing the flaming sword of the exiled king in the shape of a gentleman's saber. Finally he one day plucked up courage, crossed the frontier, gained in 30 seconds the heart of the country, entered the Casino. But another official stopped him.

"Where you not banished, monsieur?"

"Certainly I was, but I am going back by the next train."

"Oh, in that case it is all right. You can enter, monsieur."

And every week he returned, and on each occasion the same official put to him the same question, which he answered in the same fashion.

But a few years ago a serious and entirely novel case arose in the principality.

A murder had been committed.

Monaco, a native of Monaco, one of the transient strangers of whom one meets legions, but a married man, in a moment of passion had killed his wife.

He had killed her without reason, without any extenuating circumstances. This opinion was unanimous throughout the whole principality.

The supreme court was to judge this exceptional case, for never before had murder been committed, and the wretch was condemned to death.

It only remained to execute the criminal, and this was a difficult problem. The country possessed neither executioner nor guillotine.

What was to be done? On the advice of the foreign minister, the prince entered into negotiations with the French government to obtain the loan of a guillotine.

Justice in Monaco.

I wish I had leisure to speak at length of this astonishing case, smaller than a French village, but where one finds an absolute sovereign, bishops, an array of Jesuits and divinity students more numerous than that of the prince, an artillery the ordinance of which is almost that of the late Louis XIV, principles of government more despotic than those of William of Prussia, and, in addition to all this, a magnificent toleration for the vices of humanity.

On the other hand, let us salute this virtuous peacefully disposed king, who, fearing neither invasions nor revolutions, rules tranquilly over his happy little people in the midst of a court ceremonial in which is preserved intact the tradition of four centuries, 28 hand-kissings and all the forms observed in a bygone era in the presence of great rulers.

This monarch, above everything, is neither bloodthirsty nor revengeful, and when he banishes—for he does banish—the sentence is carried out with infinite tact.

It is necessary to produce proofs of this.

A pighedged gambler, after a day of bad luck, insulted the sovereign. He was expelled from the country by royal order.

For a month he roamed around the forbidden paradise, fearing the flaming sword of the exiled king in the shape of a gentleman's saber. Finally he one day plucked up courage, crossed the frontier, gained in 30 seconds the heart of the country, entered the Casino. But another official stopped him.

"Where you not banished, monsieur?"

"Certainly I was, but I am going back by the next train."

"Oh, in that case it is all right. You can enter, monsieur."

And every week he returned, and on each occasion the same official put to him the same question, which he answered in the same fashion.

But a few years ago a serious and entirely novel case arose in the principality.

A murder had been committed.

Monaco, a native of Monaco, one of the transient strangers of whom one meets legions, but a married man, in a moment of passion had killed his wife.

He had killed her without reason, without any extenuating circumstances. This opinion was unanimous throughout the whole principality.

The supreme court was to judge this exceptional case, for never before had murder been committed, and the wretch was condemned to death.

It only remained to execute the criminal, and this was a difficult problem. The country possessed neither executioner nor guillotine.

What was to be done? On the advice of the foreign minister, the prince entered into negotiations with the French government to obtain the loan of a guillotine.

Justice in Monaco.

I wish I had leisure to speak at length of this astonishing case, smaller than a French village, but where one finds an absolute sovereign, bishops, an array of Jesuits and divinity students more numerous than that of the prince, an artillery the ordinance of which is almost that of the late Louis XIV, principles of government more despotic than those of William of Prussia, and, in addition to all this, a magnificent toleration for the vices of humanity.

On the other hand, let us salute this virtuous peacefully disposed king, who, fearing neither invasions nor revolutions, rules tranquilly over his happy little people in the midst of a court ceremonial in which is preserved intact the tradition of four centuries, 28 hand-kissings and all the forms observed in a bygone era in the presence of great rulers.

This monarch, above everything, is neither bloodthirsty nor revengeful, and when he banishes—for he does banish—the sentence is carried out with infinite tact.

It is necessary to produce proofs of this.

A pighedged gambler, after a day of bad luck, insulted the sovereign. He was expelled from the country by royal order.

For a month he roamed around the forbidden paradise, fearing the flaming sword of the exiled king in the shape of a gentleman's saber. Finally he one day plucked up courage, crossed the frontier, gained in 30 seconds the heart of the country, entered the Casino. But another official stopped him.

"Where you not banished, monsieur?"

"Certainly I was, but I am going back by the next train."

"Oh, in that case it is all right. You can enter, monsieur."

And every week he returned, and on each occasion the same official put to him the same question, which he answered in the same fashion.

But a few years ago a serious and entirely novel case arose in the principality.

A murder had been committed.

Monaco, a native of Monaco, one of the transient strangers of whom one meets legions, but a married man, in a moment of passion had killed his wife.

He had killed her without reason, without any extenuating circumstances. This opinion was unanimous throughout the whole principality.

The supreme court was to judge this exceptional case, for never before had murder been committed, and the wretch was condemned to death.

It only remained to execute the criminal, and this was a difficult problem. The country possessed neither executioner nor guillotine.

What was to be done? On the advice of the foreign minister, the prince entered into negotiations with the French government to obtain the loan of a guillotine.

Justice in Monaco.

I wish I had leisure to speak at length of this astonishing case, smaller than a French village, but where one finds an absolute sovereign, bishops, an array of Jesuits and divinity students more numerous than that of the prince, an artillery the ordinance of which is almost that of the late Louis XIV, principles of government more despotic than those of William of Prussia, and, in addition to all this, a magnificent toleration for the vices of humanity.

On the other hand, let us salute this virtuous peacefully disposed king, who, fearing neither invasions nor revolutions, rules tranquilly over his happy little people in the midst of a court ceremonial in which is preserved intact the tradition of four centuries, 28 hand-kissings and all the forms observed in a bygone era in the presence of great rulers.

This monarch, above everything, is neither bloodthirsty nor revengeful, and when he banishes—for he does banish—the sentence is carried out with infinite tact.

It is necessary to produce proofs of this.

A pighedged gambler, after a day of bad luck, insulted the sovereign. He was expelled from the country by royal order.

For a month he roamed around the forbidden paradise, fearing the flaming sword of the exiled king in the shape of a gentleman's saber. Finally he one day plucked up courage, crossed the frontier, gained in 30 seconds the heart of the country, entered the Casino. But another official stopped him.

"Where you not banished, monsieur?"

"Certainly I was, but I am going back by the next train."

"Oh, in that case it is all right. You can enter, monsieur."

And every week he returned, and on each occasion the same official put to him the same question, which he answered in the same fashion.

But a few years ago a serious and entirely novel case arose in the principality.

A murder had been committed.

Monaco, a native of Monaco, one of the transient strangers of whom one meets legions, but a married man, in a moment of passion had killed his wife.

He had killed her without reason, without any extenuating circumstances. This opinion was unanimous throughout the whole principality.

The supreme court was to judge this exceptional case, for never before had murder been committed, and the wretch was condemned to death.

It only remained to execute the criminal, and this was a difficult problem. The country possessed neither executioner nor guillotine.

What was to be done? On the advice of the foreign minister, the prince entered into negotiations with the French government to obtain the loan of a guillotine.

Justice in Monaco.

I wish I had leisure to speak at length of this astonishing case, smaller than a French village, but where one finds an absolute sovereign, bishops, an array of Jesuits and divinity students more numerous than that of the prince, an artillery the ordinance of which is almost that of the late Louis XIV, principles of government more despotic than those of William of Prussia, and, in addition to all this, a magnificent toleration for the vices of humanity.

On the other hand, let us salute this virtuous peacefully disposed king, who, fearing neither invasions nor revolutions, rules tranquilly over his happy little people in the midst of a court ceremonial in which is preserved intact the tradition of four centuries, 28 hand-kissings and all the forms observed in a bygone era in the presence of great rulers.

This monarch, above everything, is neither bloodthirsty nor revengeful, and when he banishes—for he does banish—the sentence is carried out with infinite tact.

It is necessary to produce proofs of this.

A pighedged gambler, after a day of bad luck, insulted the sovereign. He was expelled from the country by royal order.

For a month he roamed around the forbidden paradise, fearing the flaming sword of the exiled king in the shape of a gentleman's saber. Finally he one day plucked up courage, crossed the frontier, gained in 30 seconds the heart of the country, entered the Casino. But another official stopped him.

"Where you not banished, monsieur?"

"Certainly I was, but I am going back by the next train."

"Oh, in that case it is all right. You can enter, monsieur."

And every week he returned, and on each occasion the same official put to him the same question, which he answered in the same fashion.

But a few years ago a serious and entirely novel case arose in the principality.

A murder had been committed.

Monaco, a native of Monaco, one of the transient strangers of whom one meets legions, but a married man, in a moment of passion had killed his wife.

He had killed her without reason, without any extenuating circumstances. This opinion was unanimous throughout the whole principality.

The supreme court was to judge this exceptional case, for never before had murder been committed, and the wretch was condemned to death.

It only remained to execute the criminal, and this was a difficult problem. The country possessed neither executioner nor guillotine.

What was to be done? On the advice of the foreign minister, the prince entered into negotiations with the French government to obtain the loan of a guillotine.

Justice in Monaco.

I wish I had leisure to speak at length of this astonishing case, smaller than a French village, but where one finds an absolute sovereign, bishops, an array of Jesuits and divinity students more numerous than that of the prince, an artillery the ordinance of which is almost that of the late Louis XIV, principles of government more despotic than those of William of Prussia, and, in addition to all this, a magnificent toleration for the vices of humanity.

On the other hand, let us salute this virtuous peacefully disposed king, who, fearing neither invasions nor revolutions, rules tranquilly over his happy little people in the midst of a court ceremonial in which is preserved intact the tradition of four centuries, 28 hand-kissings and all the forms observed in a bygone era in the presence of great rulers.

This monarch, above everything, is neither bloodthirsty nor revengeful, and when he banishes—for he does banish—the sentence is carried out with infinite tact.

It is necessary to produce proofs of this.

A pighedged gambler, after a day of bad luck, insulted the sovereign. He was expelled from the country by royal order.

For a month he roamed around the forbidden paradise, fearing the flaming sword of the exiled king in the shape of a gentleman's saber. Finally he one day plucked up courage, crossed the frontier, gained in 30 seconds the heart of the country, entered the Casino. But another official stopped him.

"Where you not banished, monsieur?"

"Certainly I was, but I am going back by the next train."

"Oh, in that case it is all right. You can enter, monsieur."

And every week he returned, and on each occasion the same official put to him the same question, which he answered in the same fashion.

But a few years ago a serious and entirely novel case arose in the principality.

A murder had been committed.

Monaco, a native of Monaco, one of the transient strangers of whom one meets legions, but a married man, in a moment of passion had killed his wife.

He had killed her without reason, without any extenuating circumstances. This opinion was unanimous throughout the whole principality.

The supreme court was to judge this exceptional case, for never before had murder been committed, and the wretch was condemned to death.

It only remained to execute the criminal, and this was a difficult problem. The country possessed neither executioner nor guillotine.

What was to be done? On the advice of the foreign minister, the prince entered into negotiations with the French government to obtain the loan of a guillotine.

Justice in Monaco.

I wish I had leisure to speak at length of this astonishing case, smaller than a French village, but where one finds an absolute sovereign, bishops, an array of Jesuits and divinity students more numerous than that of the prince, an artillery the ordinance of which is almost that of the late Louis XIV, principles of government more despotic than those of William of Prussia, and, in addition to all this, a magnificent toleration for the vices of humanity.

On the other hand, let us salute this virtuous peacefully disposed king, who, fearing neither invasions nor revolutions, rules tranquilly over his happy little people in the midst of a court ceremonial in which is preserved intact the tradition of four centuries, 28 hand-kissings and all the forms observed in a bygone era in the presence of great rulers.

This monarch, above everything, is neither bloodthirsty nor revengeful, and when he banishes—for he does banish—the sentence is carried out with infinite tact.

It is necessary to produce proofs of this.

A pighedged gambler, after a day of bad luck, insulted the sovereign. He was expelled from the country by royal order.

For a month he roamed around the forbidden paradise, fearing the flaming sword of the exiled king in the shape of a gentleman's saber. Finally he one day plucked up courage, crossed the frontier, gained in 30 seconds the heart of the country, entered the Casino. But another official stopped him.

"Where you not banished, monsieur?"

"Certainly I was, but I am going back by the next train."

"Oh, in that case it is all right. You can enter, monsieur."

And every week he returned, and on each occasion the same official put to him the same question, which he answered in the same fashion.

But a few years ago a serious and entirely novel case arose in the principality.

A murder had been committed.

Monaco, a native of Monaco, one of the transient strangers of whom one meets legions, but a married man, in a moment of passion had killed his wife.

He had killed her without reason, without any extenuating circumstances. This opinion was unanimous throughout the whole principality.

The supreme court was to judge this exceptional case, for never before had murder been committed, and the wretch was condemned to death.

It only remained to execute the criminal, and this was a difficult problem. The country possessed neither executioner nor guillotine.

What was to be done? On the advice of the foreign minister, the prince entered into negotiations with the French government to obtain the loan of a guillotine.

Justice in Monaco.

I wish I had leisure to speak at length of this astonishing case, smaller than a French village, but where one finds an absolute sovereign, bishops, an array of Jesuits and divinity students more numerous than that of the prince, an artillery the ordinance of which is almost that of the late Louis XIV, principles of government more despotic than those of William of Prussia, and, in addition to all this, a magnificent toleration for the vices of humanity.

On the other hand, let us salute this virtuous peacefully disposed king, who, fearing neither invasions nor revolutions, rules tranquilly over his happy little people in the midst of a court ceremonial in which is preserved intact the tradition of four centuries, 28 hand-kissings and all the forms observed in a bygone era in the presence of great rulers.

This monarch, above everything, is neither bloodthirsty nor revengeful, and when he banishes—for he does banish—the sentence is carried out with infinite tact.

It is necessary to produce proofs of this.

A pighedged gambler, after a day of bad luck, insulted the sovereign. He was expelled from the country by royal order.

For a month he roamed around the forbidden paradise, fearing the flaming sword of the exiled king in the shape of a gentleman's saber. Finally he one day plucked up courage, crossed the frontier, gained in 30 seconds the heart of the country, entered the Casino. But another official stopped him.

"Where you not banished, monsieur?"

"Certainly I was, but I am going back by the next train."

"Oh, in that case it is all right. You can enter, monsieur."

And every week he returned, and on each occasion the same official put to him the same question, which he answered in the same fashion.

But a few years ago a serious and entirely novel case arose in the principality.

A murder had been committed.

Monaco, a native of Monaco, one of the transient strangers of whom one meets legions, but a married man, in a moment of passion had killed his wife.

He had killed her without reason, without any extenuating circumstances. This opinion was unanimous throughout the whole principality.

The supreme court was to judge this exceptional case, for never before had murder been committed, and the wretch was condemned to death.

It only remained to execute the criminal, and this was a difficult problem. The country possessed neither executioner nor guillotine.

What was to be done? On the advice of the foreign minister, the prince entered into negotiations with the French government to obtain the loan of a guillotine.

Justice in Monaco.

I wish I had leisure to speak at length of this astonishing case, smaller than a French village, but where one finds an absolute sovereign, bishops, an array of Jesuits and divinity students more numerous than that of the prince, an artillery the ordinance of which is almost that of the late Louis XIV, principles of government more despotic than those of William of Prussia, and, in addition to all this, a magnificent toleration for the vices of humanity.

On the other hand, let us salute this virtuous peacefully disposed king, who, fearing neither invasions nor revolutions, rules tranquilly over his happy little people in the midst of a court ceremonial in which is preserved intact the tradition of four centuries, 28 hand-kissings and all the forms observed in a bygone era in the presence of great rulers.

This monarch, above everything, is neither bloodthirsty nor revengeful, and when he banishes—for he does banish—the sentence is carried out with infinite tact.

It is necessary to produce proofs of this.

A pighedged gambler, after a day of bad luck, insulted the sovereign. He was expelled from the country by royal order.

For a month he roamed around the forbidden paradise, fearing the flaming sword of the exiled king in the shape of a gentleman's saber. Finally he one day pl

at.

---

---

PRICE THREE CENTS

---

---

of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

---

ven by a boy, but by a
The south side gentle-
ve information that the
riven by a thirteen-year-
st have been one of the su who were too badly
to know whether or not
driving the team.
any have no boys in their
would not entrust their
m.

---

Hover's Lake
wn open to the public for
of '85 this (Tuesday)
which time there will be concert. Come and see.
more electric lights, larger park. Picnic permittings, Sunday school
revelations, secret or fra-

been the cause of the loss of twenty-five or thirty thousand dollars during the past six months. Eighteen dry holes are cast up its credit. There is, as the same time, a possibility that a narrow streak passes through it from Webbs to Oregon.—Tolde Commercial.

---

ANOTHER BIG WELL.
A. A. Scott and John Kerr, of this city, and H. C. Settlage, of Wapakoneta, drilled in a big well in the new coal three miles east of St. Marys yesterday. The well was two and a half screws in the sand and began flowing.
Mr. Scott, who went down yesterday to see the well come in, has not yet returned, but from the reports the six inch gusher and will do a

and all are invited to gements with the man-always on the ground, or 1, 20, for any gathering
d. There will be no
the park except upon
ps. The press will give charges are proposed.

IL AND GAS.

A GUSHER.

reville Oil Co. drilled in a Irvin B wsher farm near d that surprised every-ing almost continually
to a depth of fifteen feet.
The well is located but a w from the duster drilled Idan Bros. a few weeks company is to be congratulated its first venture. The d at 150 to 200 barrels.

FOOR SHOWING.

temmer, Cable & Steiner's
L. Rankins farm in Perry

a couple of hundred barrels at least
to start with.

OIL NOTES.

The Young, Hoffman & Zimmer-
man No. 2, on the Ridenour farm, in
Perry town, is due to-morrow.

Minor Harro's well on the Apple
farm was due to-day, but the drillers
lost the tools and are now fishing for
them.

WANTED.

WANTED. Stoves, Heating stoves, cook
stoves, gasolene and refrigerators.
Heavy cabinets and all kinds of household goods.
Highest prices paid for quality goods.
Call on New Second Hand store, 121 East Market street. 3-6c

WANTED. A good girl for general house
work. Call at 615 East High street.
2-1

FOR RENT. Large, nicely furnished room,
very reasonable. Call at room 8, Crum-mey block, West south Main street. 3-6-c.

WANTED. A good girl for general house
work. Call at 615 East Market street.
2-1

was drilled about twenty and contained thirty
It was shot late this it is not likely to make a

DRY HOLE.

well, one-half mile Conant, in Aman-
ship, is a failure.
was reached at 1561
t water was reached at feet. The drill was sent acre feet and the well
without a showing of oil.

LETTING ITS LEASES.

Whittan Oil Company has eases to the farmers in ship and will give that ore attention. Some of thereabouts threaten to

ROOM SALE.—The room residence, with North street. Enquire of 3-11

WANTED.—Two ladies to canvass, upon
guaranteed salary of $2.50 per day.
Address No. 12, Marvin Block, Findlay, Ohio.
3-2

WANTED.—A girl for general household
at 940 South Main street. 3-2

GIRL WANTED.—Good wages paid competent girl. 303 West Market st. 1-36

LOST.—An ice axe; pair of boots and an ice cleanser. Return to Thomas & Thomas office, Wabn's shoe store, and receive reward.

WANTED.—Experienced dining room girls.
Apply at once at Burnett Hotel. 1-2

WANTED.—Boomers and boarders at the new High Street. Front rooms always ready furnished. 3-2

ROOM SALE.—Choice of low price. A Ribby first class school home, at lots near and near easy terms. Will sell for cash or to build with if required. Also west Market st.
on, Pacific, on easy terms. Call on 6-11

repeated
 food in feed for through a fine
 winter, says. If these
 made
 a doubtven for the suck-Culti-

and ned without shooting on se farm and give the thing
 it. The well is plugged, oozes from the hole, it is antly. Lake township, oks rather sickly. Cap-tumbling over itself
 before breakfast. It has d many operators and has

and

MRS. DR. M. A. KERR.
 This is to certify that my eight year old daughter has nasal catarrh that would yield to no treatment, and that she is completely
 cured, the cure being effected solely through
 the remedies of Mrs. Dr. M. A. Kerr.
MRS. E. E. JENN.

---

PLE'S STORE.
 ain Offerings Been as Remarkable as
 ey are now.

SPECIAL
FOR
TOMORROW

Weather Bargains.

Organdies; 10c quality, for... 5c.
n Toweling; 5c quality, for... 2c.
n; 10c quality, for..... 6c.
see Goods at Bargain prices.

est, for..... 39c.
rest, for..... 50c.

BLUEM,
INCORPORATED IN PERU
The Bargain Dry Goods Store of Lima.

The most artistic and skill
found, design, fit and fashion
mod Hata.

THE METELLUS THOMSON

Our Summer Hats
arrive and blossom into favor wherever their beauty is underlined to feminine eyes.

Our Ladies' Hats and Boi
all the care that can be exerc anywhere or by any body.

ASK FOR MOHR'S
BITTERS.

The Lima Times-Democrat

THE TIMES-DEMOCRAT PUBLISHING CO.
COUNTING ROOM 20 NORTH MAIN ST.
TELEPHONE CALL, NO. 54.

TALES OF THE TOWN.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Perkins, a daughter.

Born to David Hughes and wife,
of Bellefontaine avenue, a son.

The Columbus base ball club is stopping at the Burnet House.

Bids for the improving of Greenlaw avenue were opened at the city clerk's office at noon to-day.

The work of paving the northwestern corner of the public square was finished this afternoon.

Lewis J. Woodcock, of St. Marys, has taken a position with O'Connor & Sons, insurance agents.

Street car passengers are transferred on the public square while the paving between the tracks is being done.

Ben Wert, found guilty of grand larceny and sentenced to one year, has been taken to Columbus to serve his term.

Mrs. Wm. Murray states that the complaint made to the Humane Society against her was by a meddlesome neighbor and without just cause.

The case in mayor's court against the ball players has been continued
immediately and will be dismissed
providing no more Sunday ball is played.

Joe Finn, administrator of the estate of the late Jerry Finn, wishes to return thanks to the Knights of St.
John for the prompt payment of his insurance.

A large number of the members of Trinity and Grace M. E. church congregations went to Wapakoneta today to attend the Epworth League convention.

The Elks Club will come off four four weeks from yesterday and will be a monster. Every body will remain in Lima that day and have their out of town friends see the big show.

At the fire on Spring street, in-arrived too late to save building, which was a big Fred Bilitier. The fire to have been of incendiary nature.

Some miscreant stole
from the big air pump Humana's store to-day pump was placed on the
the public to use in inflatires, but will be useless
nipple is replaced.

Yesterday afternoon
sued warrants for the Honaday, George Cook
Gowens, upon charges conduct. Honaday appeared guilty and was fined but the other two have before the mayor.

To-morrow
Will the last day the haired lady will be at drug store. Those who
to consult her should visit before the departure of ful woman and obtain action concerning the treatment.

A Typographical
In yesterday's editi-Times-Democrat in-signed M., on silver, inman under the editorial 9th line, the word "den"
used for remonstrated.
for r denies the sense in

Trinity M. E. Church
The Ladies' Aid Society
will give a "Dutch Sud"
lecture room of the church day from 5 to 7. An el-per will be served for 15
and take tea with us.

To the Ward Com-
Mr. Watson has donat-
rels of crackers to the Charities. They are at Please call at the home-
tary as soon as possi-
charge of the same.

L. A. to O. R.
Regular meeting L.
Saturday at 2:30 p. m.
hall. Business of im-
Mrs. MATTICK

SHIRT WAISTS Have Treat
Once and make your self
Johnson's Sw
Mondays, Wednesdays
for ladies only. Tuesdays and Saturdays for ladies men.

D. BELL'S STORE OPEN TO-DAY!

We have purchased for cash Mr. Bell's business, and as we are comparative strangers to the people of Lima and vicinity, we will introduce ourselves with a

GRAND CLEARANCE SALE!

We have been so busy re-marking stock that it is impossible to give a detailed list of prices. suffice it to say that many goods are marked down to

HALF PRICE.

And every department shows many reductions.

Soliciting a continuance of the liberal patronage always bestowed on this store, we are Respectfully,

CARROLL & COONEY,

Successors to D. BELL.

THE : LEADING : DRY : GOODS : STORE.

The

VOL. XI, NO. 202

BRICE'S RAILROADS

May Be Consolidated With the
H. & D. System.

Some Interesting Details About the Meaning of the P. A. & W. Deal.

Senator Brice's railroad transactions, says the Cincinnati Times, at this time are of great importance.
His actions are being closely watched by railroads men in this State for the purchase of the P. A. & W. means simply that there is to be added to the great trunk line from Pittsburgh to West. Not alone is Brice as the er of the L. E. & W. interested in the purchase, but associated with him are the C. H. & D. interests.
The Senator said that the C. H. & D. would probably furnish half the purchase money.

"The P. A. & W. said he would from Akron to Delphos. It was built to sell to the B. & O., but the negotiations failed. The B. & O.
built its own line from Akron to Chicago Junction, and the P. A. &
W. immediately became bankrupt.
It sold for $50,000, and we got it from the successful bidder. It will take $2,000,000 to put the line in shape and another million for rolling stock.

"The P. A. & W. crosses the L.
E. & W. at Bluffton. The D. & N.
is intersected at Columbus Grove,
and at Delphos the C. H. & D.
Cincinnati, Dayton and Chicago line
from Delphos to Ironton is connected with it. At Akron it connects with the C. A. & C.

"From Akron we expect to use the Akron & Newcastle and obtain a direct line into Pittsburgh. There may be other purchases and traffic arrangements made, but I cannot give the details now. As to the C. J. &
M. it is still in the courts.

A glance at the map of Ohio will show what an important link this little P. A. & W. road really is.
The traffic arrangements and financial interests of the Brice and C. H.
& D. syndicates make the deal of great interest. Brice practically controls the C. A. & C., running from Columbus to Hudson, and the into Cleveland over the Cleveland & Pittsburg, a Pennsylvania line. He owns a quantity of stock, not quite controlling interest, but a large Saul, the general manager, is a Brice lieutenant. The coalition with the C. H. & D. interests is a strong one and its importance cannot be underestimated. Saul is receiver of the Ohio Southern, and there is talk of that road passing into C. H. & D. control.

The Clover Leaf runs from Tolet
to St. Louis. The western terminus of the P. A. & W. is Delphos, and the Clover Leaf passes through De-phos. The line is in financial trouble, but is being operated, undoubtedly by Brice men. With the P. A. & W. connection the T. St. L. & K.
will have a direct line from St. Lou-to Pittsburgh. Then as the Lat-Erie & Western runs from Sandus-
to Peoria, Ill. traffic, which h-hitherto been thrown to other lines
will be diverted at Bluffton and carried to Pittsburgh on Brice road.
Recently the Cleveland, Lorain Wheeling built a line from Mediwhere it intersects the P. A. & W. into Cleveland. M. D. Woodford, president of the C. H. & D., is president of the C. L. & W., so here another combination. The Clo-Leaf and L. E. & W. will run in Cleveland, thus making another direct line to St. Louis and Peoria.

It will be readily seen that the purchase is of moment in the road world. It is not probable forecast, in the not distant future consolidation of all these roads. The idea was suggested to Colonel B-yesterday and he promptly responded
"It is not at all improbable."

With the purchase of the C. L.
N. to give the C. J. & M. a Cinquid entrance, another important link will be forged. The P. A.
& W., another bankrupt concern
now in Brice's hands, and it will added to the list. The road is in splendid physical shape, it is said.

During Senator Brice's visit
he saw all of the prominent railroad men and transacted business. Receiver Hunt, of the
A. & W. was here, and Geo.
Hafer, of the C. L. & N., was con-
ed with Brice for an hour.

THE OUTING

Engely Enjoyed by the Junior
C. A.

The Juniors of the Association enjoyed the outing privileges offer-McCullough's Lake and John Swim, Saturday afternoon. On arrival the following field ex-
were indulged in, with the follo-
individuals as winners:

Indian wrestle, Floyd M.
Three-legged race, Chester Re-
and J. Overmyer; Wheelbarrow
T. McLaughlin and C. Basinger race, Floyd Moore.

Diving, neatest, Fred M-
Swimming, fastest, Floyd Moor-
Messrs. Roehm, Bethards-Campbell were the officers of the Pay gas bills to-day

save your discount.

Sunday night. Twenty or more are said to have been blown down
people are hunting for one.
Owing to the fact that there are great facilities, it is impossible
time to get a full report.

new one the separations will be made by two vertical perforations, which will be much handier.

POWDER MOST PERFECT MADE.

from Grays Cream of Tartar Powder.

wherever they can, and are sinking several wells in that vicinity. A well just in on the infirmary farm is good for 20 barrels daily.

The Dutch Oil company drilled in a well on the infirmary farm that is

The Second regiment, O. N. G., has not as yet decided as to their annual encampment. It has been de-